We went for a swim in Faith and John Ackermann's pool this morning. They are away on a holiday, and told us we could use it in their absence.

Eva and Harold Hinton came for Lunch, and we had a talk about Eva's activities in preserving Old Georgetown, [redacted]

Tonight, the Bonbrights came for dinner, and Helen Kirkpatrick stopped in for a drink with us. Her brother, my friend Lyman, [redacted] a fine fellow, has just had an attack of polio, is paralyzed from his waist down and also in one arm. It is [redacted] sad.
